AFFIDAVIT

On May 3, 2016, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Special Agent (S/A) Jarrell W. Perry, DEA S/A Gerald Maestas and DEA Task Force Officer (TFO) Clarence Davis were at the Greyhound Bus Station in Albuquerque, New Mexico when the eastbound Greyhound Bus arrived for its regularly scheduled stop in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

S/A Perry approached a female, who was later identified as Domoniqua Rane NOLAN, who was sitting in her respective seat on the Greyhound Bus. S/A Perry displayed his DEA badge to NOLAN, identified himself as a police officer to NOLAN, asked for and received permission to speak with NOLAN.

After a short conversation, S/A Perry asked NOLAN if she had any luggage with her. NOLAN stated that she had a checked in bag underneath of the bus. S/A Perry asked for and received permission from NOLAN to search her checked in bag for contraband. S/A Perry located a green/black backpack with the name of Domoniqua NOLAN attached on the Greyhound luggage tag underneath of the bus. A consensual search of NOLAN's green/black backpack revealed a large clear plastic heat-sealed bundle containing a clear crystal like substance concealed inside of a white towel.

S/A Perry immediately knew from his experience that the clear plastic heat-sealed bundle and its contents were consistent with illegal narcotics, specifically crystal methamphetamine. S/A Perry handcuffed NOLAN, thus placing her under arrest.

NOLAN was transported to the DEA ADO. At the DEA ADO, S/A Perry and DEA S/A David Nutley removed the clear plastic heat-sealed bundle from NOLAN's backpack. S/A Perry and S/A Nutley weighed the bundle, for a total weight of approximately 2.30 gross kilograms. S/A Perry and S/A Nutley field-tested the clear crystal like substance from the bundle, which produced a positive reaction for the presence of methamphetamine. S/A Perry knew that based upon his training and experience that this is an amount that is consistent with distribution rather than personal use.

This affidavit is submitted for the limited purpose of providing probable cause to support the attached criminal complaint.
